For biddin' treasure

THE PROVIDENCE JOURNAL / MARY MURPHY

General Treasurer Frank Caprio holds an unauthenticated baseball signed by Walter Johnson, who pitched for the Washington Senators early last century, which will be auctioned tomorrow at 10 a.m. at the Department of Administration building, One Capitol Hill, in Providence. The auction of unclaimed property includes old coins, jewelry, sports cards and stamp collections, as well as a three-handled Tiffany trophy cup, top left, and a $10 bill, with its serial number printed upside down, top right.
